DEMENTIA / SPECIAL NEEDS BED VACANCIES

AdventCare Whitehorse is an accredited aged care facility located in Nunawading, just 30 minutes from the heart of the city, and conveniently located near public transport, banks, shops, schools and Blackburn Lake.

We currently have vacancies in our Dorothy Wing for people with Dementia, Alzheimer's and Special Needs.

AdventCare Whitehorse's Dorothy Wing was built in 1991 as an 18 bed special needs secure wing catering for residents with dementia and special needs. Now, with specialist consultation, the wing has been fully renovated and extended to 38 beds and includes:

Single rooms with ensuites.

Kitchenette and large dining room, which is beautifully furnished to enhance the dining experience of the residents.

Small chapel and multiple light filled sitting rooms.

Two courtyards with sensory boards, a bus shelter, mail box, men's shed, clothes line and raised garden beds. These features are incorporated in the lifestyle programs offered to residents.

Murals and artwork of Victorian landmarks provide a point of interest along the secure walking tracks.

Activities staff from 9am until 7pm.

Our dedicated staff are committed to delivering quality care and services to meet the specialised needs of residents with dementia and special needs, helping make their lives as fulfilling as possible.

To book a private tour with Helen Psomiadis, Facilities Coordination Manager please contact reception on 9259 2112.
